It became known this morning that the eding the veto of the franchise granted and Telephone Company, June 18 last, had forgotten a little joker left in Mayor Schieren's hand, which he now proposes franchise to the Company provided for a bond to be placed in the hands of the Mayor to protect the city's rights. Mayor Schleren was not at his office to-day, but it was said on good authority that he had already said he would refuse to accept the bond offered by the Company, and that the work of con-struction cannot be commenced until the struction cannot be commenced until the bond is approved.

President Millard, of the Company, called to see the Mayor this morning, but left without stating what steps the Company would take if His Honor refused absolutely to accept the bond.

Mayor Schieren vetoed the granting of the franchise twice because he claimed that the action of the Alfermen was contrary to law. He stated that the city's interests were not properly protected. The Aldermen, however, paid no attention to the Mayor's objections.
